Please contact the Department's DPO with any queries you may have in relation to this privacy statement for Form RF150 - Declaration of Non-Use of a Motor Vehicle

Personal data processed by the Department will only be used for the specific purpose(s) as outlined when the data is collected, or in later communications, and will only be used in accordance with the Data Protection legislation in force.

Data Subject Rights:

When you provide personal data to us you have certain rights available to you in relation to that data. These rights are outlined below and can be exercised by contacting the Data Protection Officer, as detailed above, indicating which right you wish to exercise:

- The right to be informed
- The right of access
- The right to rectification
- The right to erasure
- The right to restrict processing
- The right to data portability
- The right to object
- Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling

Finally, as a data subject, should you be unhappy with the provision of information in this Notice you can make a complaint to the Data Protection Commission, which is Ireland's Supervisory Authority for data protection matters.

Part B: Information Specific to the Data Being Collected in Form RF150 - Declaration of Non-Use of a Motor Vehicle

The following data is specific information in relation to the personal data processed for the purposes of Form RF150

Specific Purpose:

Form RF150 is used when a declaration of non-use of a motor vehicle is required for motor tax purposes. The form is submitted to the Department of Transport, Tourism and Sport, with the owner details and the period of non-use being recorded on the National Vehicle and Driver File (NVDF).

The NVDF constitutes the national driver and vehicle registers and has a legal basis in Section 60 of the Finance Act 1993. The NVDF database contains details in respect of the registered vehicles and licensed drivers in the country. The NVDF plays a critical role in the collection of motor tax and vehicle ownership notification services. The NVDF also fulfils legal obligations in relation to the recording of penalty points and provides vehicle and driver related statistical analyses to assist with the business objectives of a range of stakeholders.

Legal Basis:

The legal basis for this form is the Non-Use of Motor Vehicles Act, 2013 and the form is prescribed for in the Non-Use of Motor Vehicles Regulations, 2013 (S.I. No. 233 of 2013).

Recipients:

Section 60 of the Finance Act (No. 13 of 1993) as amended provides for access to the National Vehicle and Driver File (NVDF) data to those prescribed in Regulations by the Minister for Transport, Tourism and Sport

These include:

- Government Agencies who use the NVDF data for business delivery purposes, assisting with investigations and assisting in the execution of a regulatory framework; and
- Other persons assisting with the provision of a commercial service which is considered in the general public interest

Transferred outside the EU/EEA and countries with which there is no adequacy agreement***

The personal information you provide in this form is not transferred outside the EU/EEA.

Retention period:

The data collected for this purpose will be held by the Department only as long as there is a business need to do so in line with the purpose(s) for which the personal data was collected. After this time it will be marked for destruction and will be destroyed in line with internal guidelines or guidelines for destruction received from the National Archives Office or associated permission received from them or in line with other statutory requirements for destruction.

Data provision - Statutory Obligation

The personal data provided for this purpose is being requested under the requirements of Section 60 of the Finance Act 1993. The Non-Use of Motor Vehicles Regulations, 2013 (S.I. No. 233 of 2013) sets out the provisions that must be complied with when the owner of a motor vehicle wishes to declare their vehicle off the road for motor tax purposes. The law places an obligation on the vehicle owner to notify the Department of Transport, Tourism and Sport that their vehicle has been declared off the road and is will not be used or left in a public place and the period of non-use is recorded on the National Vehicle and Driver File (NVDF).

Automated decision making

Automated decision making is not part of the processing of the personal data included in this form.

Information from a third party

Not applicable for this form. The law requires the owner of the vehicle to complete this form, the owner's details are recorded on the NVDF.

Technical information on data collected
